1. Listening and Reading course profile

This course focuses on improving reading and listening skills in English. Each class has up to 20 students. The course offers three levels from basic to advanced: [Essentials for Beginners], [Academic Skills for Intermediate Learners], and [Critical Thinking for Advanced Learners]. Starting from the reading and listening of everyday communication in the basic course, the course gradually enriches your vocabulary. In the intermediate level, more academic situations are introduced, and in the advanced level the course presents high-level academic discussions and readings for students to express their thoughts effectively and critically.

- Lessons are taught by assigned instructors under the guidance of the academic coordinators.
- This course is administered by Waseda University Global Education Center under contract to Waseda University Academic Solutions Corporation.

1.1 Course levels and goals for each level

There are three levels so students can register for courses according to their English proficiency.

Compulsory Students: You will take the course you have been placed in by your department.

Elective Students: You will take the level you chose at registration. Please refer to the table below and the syllabus when choosing your level.

Level	Expected English test score				Goal for each level	Target students
Essentials for Beginners	Below 275	Below 275	Below 9	Below 4	Aim to acquire the frequently used expressions for communication in daily life, and understand readings/conversations about everyday topics.	Students who are not good at English but wish to get used to written and spoken English
Academic Skills for Intermediate Learners	275~485	275~450	9~21	4~23	Aim to understand the main ideas of wide-ranging subjects, and acquire basic skills to analyze the structure of texts and talks.	Students who are comfortable with English, but wish to acquire skills for understanding lectures and discussions in English
Critical Thinking for Advanced Learners	Above 400	Above 385	Above 17	Above 18	Aim to understand writings and discussions in the academic field, to express thoughts precisely, and to write well-structured sentences in those academic situations.	To the students who wish to understand information in English in your specific fields.

1.2 Class modality

Class modality differs depending on the level and class you are taking. Please confirm the class modality by referring to the “Course Title” and “Class Modality Category” in the “Course Information” section of the syllabus. If you are taking this course as a compulsory subject, you cannot choose the class modality. You will take the course you have been automatically registered for.

Registration	Essentials for Beginners	Academic Skills for Intermediate Learners	Critical Thinking for Advanced Learners
Compulsory (SILS)	-	On-campus	On-campus
Compulsory (School of Sport Sciences)	Online	Online	-
Elective	Online	On-campus or Online	On-campus

2. Before the course starts

2.1 Course level and classroom information (On-campus)

◆Level

Compulsory : The course level is decided by your department. Please check your course level on the “Course Registration Web System”.

Elective : You will take the level you chose at registration. You can check your level on the “Course Registration Web System”.

◆Classroom number

Please refer to the syllabus for the on-campus classroom information.

(Online classes will be conducted using Collaborate via Waseda Moodle.)

2.2 Purchasing textbooks

Purchase a textbook for your level before the class starts. Make sure to buy a new textbook.

The Second Edition of [Beginner] and [Intermediate] are published in 2024. Please be careful not to purchase the First Edition by mistake.

※1 Preparation

For [Essentials for Beginners] and [Academic Skills for Intermediate Learners] courses, you can take each preparation task up to two times. The score will be displayed after each attempt, and the higher score will be used for the final grade. Answering the second time is optional. (You can take each preparation task only once for [Critical Thinking for Advanced Learners] course.)

If you are absent from a lesson, you can still submit your answers before the deadline.

※2 Class Quiz / In-class comprehension quiz

You will take the quiz during lessons following the instructor's direction. Please refer to the following for quiz and absence / lateness rules.

-In case of absence (no entry to the classroom or Collaborate): You will not be eligible for scoring because your identity has not been verified. (The score will be invalid).

-If you are late, leave early, or leave in the middle for less than 30 minutes: You may take the quiz only for the remaining time.

-If you are late, leave early, or leave in the middle for more than 30 minutes: You will not be eligible for scoring (the score will be invalid).

★For “Academic Skills for Intermediate Learners” courses, you will answer the In-class comprehension quizzes via Waseda Moodle during lessons. Students enrolled in face-to-face class are required to bring a laptop, tablet, smartphone, or other device with Internet access to each lesson. If you do not have a device that you can bring, please consult with the instructor.

※3 Writing Tasks

If your assignment is submitted late, a flat rate of 40% will be deducted from your task score. For example, if your original score is 8 points out of 10, deducting 40% means your actual score will be 4.8 points.

The final deadline for late submissions is 23:59 on the last lesson day. (Lesson 14)

You still can submit an assignment even if you are absent.

※4 Final exam

- ・ The details of the [Essentials for Beginners] final exam will be sent to students via Waseda Mail.
- In case of absence (no entry to the classroom or Collaborate): You will not be eligible for scoring because your identity has not been verified. (The score will be invalid).
- If you are late, leave early, or leave in the middle for less than 30 minutes: You may take the quiz only for the remaining time. However, if you are late, you may not be able to answer the listening part, which is conducted first.
- If you are late, leave early, or leave in the middle for more than 30 minutes: You will not be eligible for scoring (The score will be invalid).
- ・ If you do not show your student ID card or if your identity cannot be verified via camera, the scores may be invalidated.

3.2 How to attend lessons (On-campus and Online)

◆On-campus classes:

Please attend lessons at the classroom shown in the syllabus.

◆Online classes:

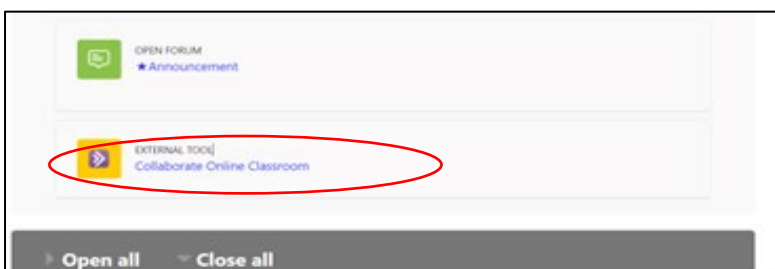

Online classes will be conducted using Collaborate via Waseda Moodle. For details, please refer to the following.

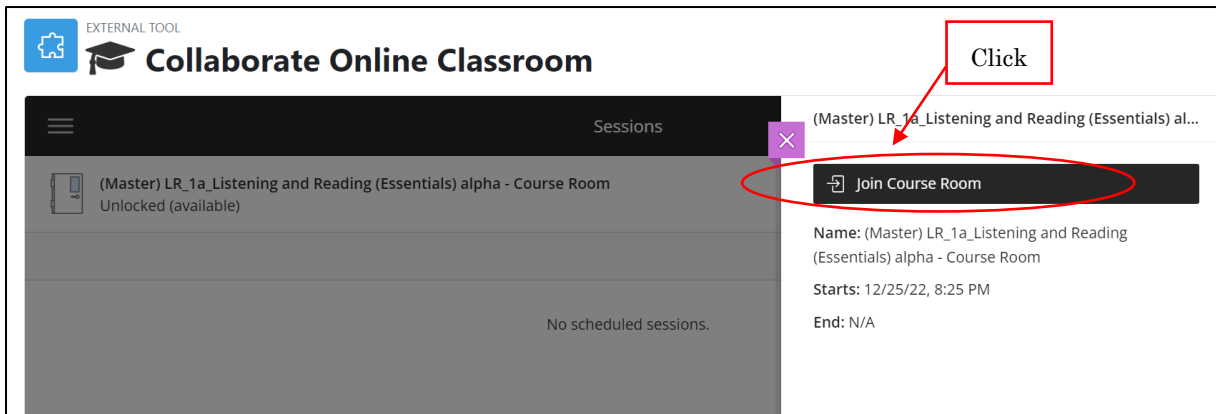

【NOTES】

Regarding attendance and absences, please refer to “4.2 Attendances and Absences” on p.11.

① Waseda Moodle

On Waseda Moodle, select the course you are currently taking (Listening and Reading XXXX) from the “Course overview,” then click on “Collaborate Online Classroom.” You can access your class like this every lesson.

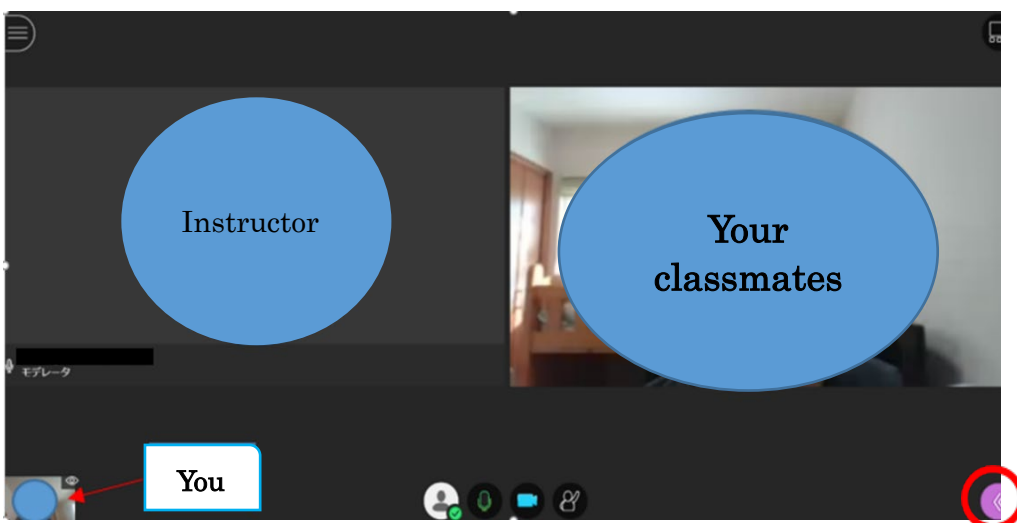

② Entering the online classroom, and attending lessons online.

Click on the audio  and video  icons at the bottom of the screen to make your video on and microphone off.

* Please turn on the video during the lesson to confirm your attendance.

<How to use the chat function>

If you cannot hear anyone's voice or cannot see anything, you can use the chat function.

Click on the purple icon  at the bottom right of the screen and click on  icon to display the chat screen.

* Please type in English when you chat.

③ Leave the Online classroom

After the lesson, be sure to click  (Status & Settings), select “Leave session”, and close the screen.

* If you do not select “Leave session”, you will continue to be in the class and it might cause problems, so be sure to click “Leave session”.

Using Collaborate

- When you attend lessons via Collaborate, please take them in a quiet environment. (Use a headphone/microphone if needed.)
- In the case you cannot attend your online class due to network connection problems, please send an email to your instructor immediately. For your instructor’s contact information, please check “Announcement” on Waseda Moodle, or your Waseda email delivered from “Announcement”.
- Collaborate lessons are live, and you are required to interact with a partner or in a group arranged by your instructor. Please always follow your instructor’s instructions.
- Please turn on the video and turn off the microphone when you begin lessons.

When you want to ask questions, use the “Raise Hand” function and wait for your instructor’s reply.

- Lessons cannot be recorded. If you have questions about lessons, please ask your instructors during the lessons or right after lessons finished if your instructor is available. You also can contact your instructors by sending emails.
- Regarding Waseda Moodle and online lessons, please refer to the URL below. If your instructor gives you a different instruction, always follow your instructor.

Learn Anywhere https://wnpspt.waseda.jp/student_en/learnanywhere/

※Use the same MyWaseda ID (waseda email address) and password when you log in.

3.3 Lessons

Please participate actively in the lessons. Lessons are conducted entirely in English.

Please read “Student’s Guide” provided on Waseda Moodle carefully and thoroughly.

The instructor will explain the contents of the Student's guide in the first class.

- All the assignments and tests including preparation, writing tasks, and the class quizzes and final exam should be submitted on Waseda Moodle.

- Regarding Waseda Moodle, please refer to the URL below. If your instructor gives you different instructions, follow what they say.

Learn Anywhere https://wnpspt.waseda.jp/student_en/learnanywhere/

※Use the same MyWaseda ID (waseda email address) and password when you log in.

3.4 Answering the student questionnaire

Students will be asked to answer a class evaluation survey. It will not affect your grade in any way.

This will be used as a reference for future class management, so your cooperation would be appreciated.

4. Assessment

4.1 Areas for assessment

Students will be assessed based on the description in the web syllabus as shown below.

Regarding assignments, quizzes and exams, any act of misconduct will have a great impact on your grades. In terms of the acts of misconduct, please refer to the Global Education Center website and Student’s guide for details. <https://www.waseda.jp/inst/gec/en/undergraduate/class/>

You must attend 10 or more lessons per quarter to be eligible to acquire credits for all the courses of all the levels.

4.2 Attendances and absences

■The following are the conditions and notes for absences.

- (On-campus) If you are late or leave early by more than 30 minutes, you will be marked absent.
- (Online) If you are not able to communicate on Collaborate via Waseda Moodle for more than 30 minutes during the lesson, you will be marked absent.

If your instructor does not show up, please wait for 5 minutes and call the Waseda University Academic Solutions Corporation office (03-5286-8030) to let us know. Please wait in the classroom or online classroom for the first 20 minutes of class. You can leave the classroom/online classroom if your instructor still does not show up after waiting for 20 minutes. This means your lesson is cancelled. If you leave without waiting for 20 minutes, you will be marked absent.

■Notes

- If you are absent from a lesson, you may still be able to submit assessments. Please refer to “3.1 Pre and post lesson study and exams (p.6)”
- No prior notification is required for absences.
- (Online) If you have an internet connection problem, your attendance will be considered if you let the instructor know immediately. Please refer to “3.2 How to attend lessons (On-campus and Online) (p.7-9)”
- The final exam for [Essentials for Beginners] students will be held in Lesson 14. As in regular lessons, students will be considered absent and not be eligible for scoring if they are unable to communicate via Waseda Moodle Collaborate for more than 30 minutes during class time or cannot verify their identity.

4.3 Special consideration for absences and grades

When the university is closed because of natural disasters or infectious diseases, there will be special consideration for absences and grades. Also, when students are absent due to the circumstances listed below and submit the required documents to the offices as stated below, it will not be counted as a regular absence. No special consideration will be given for any other reasons.

Reason	Required documents	Required documents	Place of application
Bereavement Leave (to the second-degree relatives)	「忌引きによる授業欠席等に関する取扱いのお願い」 (stamped with your department's seal)	Acquire the required form from your department and submit it to the office of application noted in the right section.	Please apply via MyWaseda application form using the QR code or the URL below. MyWaseda Application Form https://my.waseda.jp/application/detail/application-detail?communityContentLinkId=543452409  申請フォーム • Please note you cannot email or hand the application to the office staff directly even if you come to the GEC office (3F, Building 1) or office of Waseda University Academic Solutions Corporation (Building 29-2).
Infectious Disease	学校感染症に関する「授業欠席(配慮)届け」 (stamped with your department's seal)	① Acquire「学校感染症治癒証明書」 from your doctor and submit it to your department ② Acquire the required form from your department and submit it to the office of application noted in the right section.
Nursing Experience	「講義欠席特別扱願」(「実施証明書」)	Obtain the necessary documents (listed on the left) from the Faculty of Education Office (Building No. 16, 2nd floor) and submit them to the office of application noted in the right section. Please check you received a stamp from the facility you practiced in.
Jury Duty	「裁判員制度に関わる欠席届」 (stamped with your department's seal)	Obtain the necessary documents (listed on the left) from your department and submit it to the office of application noted in the right section.

- ※ Students will be given special consideration for attendance up to 4 times per quarter, and they will be given special consideration for assignments up to once per quarter. Applications exceeding the limit (4 times) are treated as regular absences. If the number of regular absences exceeds 5 times, students will not receive credits for this course.
- ※ Special consideration for assignments is only applies to the “Class quiz” of [Essentials for Beginners] and “In-class comprehension quiz” for [Academic Skills for Intermediate Learners]. If special consideration is given for assignments, half of the full score will be given for the quiz in question.
- ※ If the special consideration date is the date of [Essentials for Beginners] final exam, a make-up exam will be held on another date. However, if students take the final exam on the original final exam, they will not be allowed to take the make-up exam. In addition, no make-up exam will be permitted for reasons other than those listed in the table above.
- ※ “Preparation” for all levels, “Writing Tasks/Assessed Task” for [Academic Skills for Intermediate Learners] and [Critical Thinking for Advanced Learners] are not given special consideration.
- ※ Regarding hospitalization: Students will only be eligible to apply for special consideration due to hospitalization if their attendance does not meet the requirements for obtaining credits. Please submit a doctor's certificate. The stamp of your department office is not required.

- ※ Absences due to club activities and match participation cannot be considered.
- ※ All the classes of [Essentials for Beginners] and some classes of [Academic Skills for Intermediate Learners] will be delivered Online. The decision of the entire university closure due to weather conditions applies only to the classes held on campus. Classes held online are not eligible because they can be taken from off-campus. Please ensure your own safety and attend online classes if possible. However, you may be able to request consideration for your absence when you decide you can't attend due to weather conditions at the location where you are. If you wish to be considered, please submit an absent report that has been approved by your department to the office stated above.
- ※ For teaching practice please note that special consideration will not be given if you have registered for a quarterly course (7-week course), so please refrain from taking quarterly courses during the training period.

■Due date for submitting documents

Quarter	Due date	Quarter	Due date
Spring	2024/6/6 (Thu)	Summer	2024/7/24 (Wed)
Fall	2024/11/28 (Thu)	Winter	2025/1/29 (Wed)

- ※ If you will not be able to submit documents before the deadline due to an infectious disease near the end of each quarter, please contact us before each quarter's deadline.
- ※ If you do not contact us by the due dates above, documents will not be accepted.

5. Acts of Misconduct

The Global Education Center (GEC) maintains policies to assess penalties for students who have violated the rules for test-taking and the submission of assignments. Students who have violated the relevant rules may receive a grading penalty. Be cautious and take time to look over these guidelines carefully before taking a test or submitting an assignment. The Students' guide also informs students of equipment and other items that are not allowed to be used. Please check the Student's guide as well.

 In Listening and Reading courses, submitting assignments using generated AI are not permitted. If use is discovered, the student will be subject to disposition.

Definition of violations

1. Violation of rules governing tests and quizzes*1

The acts listed below will be regarded as violations unless the instructor gives special permission allowing them.

- (1) Taking a test on behalf of someone else or having someone else take a test on your behalf.
- (2) Bringing in documents or electrical devices for cheating purposes.
- (3) Using illegal textbooks, notebooks or memos during a test.
- (4) Sharing with others items that have been permitted for use in a test.
- (5) Writing down matters related to a test on parts of the body, clothes, personal belongings or classroom furniture.
- (6) Exchanging answer sheets or looking at another student's answer sheet.
- (7) Copying others or letting other students look at your answer sheet.
- (8) Verbalizing or signaling answers to any test question or using any means of transmission of information to have contact with others.
- (9) Using a false name, handing in an answer sheet with no name, ripping or taking an answer sheet out of the exam room.
- (10) Making changes and continuing to work after the end of a test.
- (11) Not obeying the proctor.
- (12) Engaging in any kind of improper action during a test.
- (13) Raising suspicion of having violated any of these rules.
- (14) Helping others to violate any of these rules.

2. Violation of rules governing assignments*2

The acts listed below will be regarded as violations unless the instructor gives special permission allowing them.

- (1) Working on an assignment on behalf of someone else or having someone else work on an assignment on your behalf.
- (2) Copying another student's work and acting as if it was done by you.

- (3) Helping others to copy your work and acting as if it was done by them.
- (4) Using another student's idea, analysis, analysis method, data, research result, essay, terms or knowledge without permission.
- (5) Working on an assignment with others when this is not intended by the instructor.

3. Violation of rules governing on-demand tests*3

The acts listed below will be regarded as violations.

- (1) Taking an on-demand test on behalf of someone else or having someone else take your test on your behalf.
- (2) Taking an on-demand test in collaboration with others.

Grading penalty for violations

A fail will be given for the course on which the violation took place. Furthermore, the violation will be reported to the relevant undergraduate or graduate school office.

Dishonest acts

The acts listed below will be regarded as dishonest acts.

- (1) Violations on general tests and on-demand tests, and failure to obey an instructor.
- (2) Disobeying an instructor with regard to grading elements. *4
- (3) Preventing an instructor from grading fairly.

Grading penalty for dishonest acts

The grade for the course in which the dishonest act took place will be determined by the class instructor and GEC faculty. However, if the act affects the fairness of grading, those found guilty will receive a penalty equivalent to that of test-taking violators.

*1 “Tests” are tools to evaluate skills and knowledge using questions or exercises or any tool regarded to be their equivalent. In this case, all students must be informed that the “test” will be the main evaluation method for the course.

*2 “Assignments” are the results of your research that you hand in as an essay or present in a presentation or demonstration of some sort.

*3 An “on-demand test” is a test authorized for you to take anywhere using the internet or network system.

*4 “Grading elements” are elements used for evaluation besides quizzes, book reports, and attendance.

Q4. I can access Waseda Moodle, but cannot access the online classroom through Collaborate.

A Please send an email to your instructor as soon as possible. Then please contact the university IT service. Please refer to Q3 above.

Q5. I cannot do voice/screen sharing

A Please check your computer settings. If you can't solve the problems, please contact college IT service. Please refer to Q3 above.

Q6. Can I change my level? I don't think my level suits me.

A You cannot change your level. If you think it's too difficult for you, please take time for the pre and post lesson studying.

Q7. Can I take only α or only β?

A Although it is possible to take only α or β for each level, we recommend taking both α and β in order to enhance the learning experience.

Q8. Where can I purchase textbooks?

A Please refer to p. 5 "Purchasing textbooks."

Q9. Are there any special considerations for club activities and extracurricular activities?

A In the case of "Bereavement (to the second-degree relatives)", "Infectious Disease", "Nursing Experience", and "Jury Duty", special consideration will be given for attendance and grade evaluation only when the necessary documents are submitted by the due date. Club activities and activities other than those listed above are not applicable.
